

Echo Pandemic in the Family Courts

Due in part to COVID-19 mitigation strategies (shelter in place, social isolation, etc.), anticipated effects (higher rates of divorce, intimate partner violence, child abuse, financial stresses, etc.) will likely overwhelm an already fragile family justice system (backlogs, delays, etc.) without the innovative planning to enhance Access to Justice.

Michel A., Saini, PhD, . MSW., RSW
Factor-Inwentash Chair in Law and Social Work
University of Toronto